Scholarship Sponsor

Name: West Reading High School Alumni Scholarship

Description: Prior to 1969, the Wyomissing and West Reading School Districts were two separate entities. A merger of the athletic programs took place in 1968 and in 1969 the academic programs were merged. At that time the name of the district was changed from Wyomissing School District to Wyomissing Area School District.

This scholarship is in honor of those who graduated from the former West Reading High School.

Applicant Qualifications

Recipients of this scholarship must reside in the borough of West Reading and demonstrate financial need. Applicants are evaluated according to their school and community activities and are asked to write a short essay answering the questions, "What has living in West Reading meant to me?"
